A Disaster in Oklahoma

On May 20, 2013 our country witnessed the horrors of another natural disaster: this time striking in the form of a mammoth tornado at our fellow citizens living in Oklahoma.

The cost in human death—24 people at this writing—as well as in dislocation and misery is a pitiful spectacle. Even as we observe the images of destruction from the safety of our homes, it is painful to know that we are witnessing the sorrow and loss of our fellow Americans.

Our hearts go out to the victims, and to all the people of the region.

Please join us in offering prayers for their relief, safety, and consolation. Shortly, the Eastern Diocese will be asking our parishes to take up a special collection on their behalf. In the meantime, may God bless the victims in Oklahoma, and may He answer the prayers of all people who call out to Him from the depths of their suffering.

With prayers,

Archbishop Khajag Barsamian

Primate

FEAST OF HOLY ETCHMIADZIN

According to tradition, and hagiographic sources, following the declaration of Christianity as the Official Religion of Armenia in 301 AD, St. Gregory has a famous vision, wherein the Only Begotten Son of God - Jesus Christ, descends from Heaven, his face lit aglow, and with the strike of a golden hammer designates the site where the Mother Cathedral for the entire Armenian nation is to be founded. Hence, the name of the spiritual center for the Armenians, "Etchmiadzin", means "the Descent of the Only Begotten" (Etch - descent, mi - only, dzin - begotten.)

St. Gregory relayed the story about his vision to the Armenian King Tiridates, under whose royal auspices and support the Cathedral of Holy Etchmiadzin was built. King Tiridates and Queen Ashkhen participated in the construction, as did the entire capital city of Vagharshapat by bringing stones from the biblical mountain of Ararat to lay the foundations. In the site marked by Christ, a Holy Altar of Descent was built.

According to Patriarch Malachia Ormanian, from the days of her establishment, the Cathedral of Holy Etchmiadzin has been the residence of the Supreme Patriarch and Catholicos of All Armenians. Thus, it is the Mother See of the Armenian Church, and as such, her universal, spiritual and administrative headquarters.

Another title bestowed upon the cathedral is "Catholic" - not to be confused with the Roman Catholic faith. Catholic is a Greek word meaning "Universal". Theologically, the cathedral has been called "catholic" as a description of the catholicity (universality) of the Church.

ORDER OF SPECIAL PRAYER FOR THE CATHOLICOS

On the feast of Holy Etchmiadzin

The Order of Special Prayer for the Catholicos and the Feast of Holy Etchmiadzin are celebrated together two weeks after Pentecost, between May 24 and June 27.

The Feast of Holy Etchmiadzin is dedicated to St. Gregory the Illuminator's delivery from the pit where he was held captive for fifteen years. His delivery from the pit marks a turning point in the history of the Armenian Church. As described by the historian Agathangelos, upon his release, St. Gregory had a vision in which the Only Begotten Son of God descended from Heaven with a golden hammer and marked the place where he was to erect the present Cathedral. In the year 303 A.D. the pagan temple on that site was demolished and the Mother Cathedral of Holy Etchmiadzin was built in its place. Hence, the Feast of the Holy Etchmiadzin marks the establishment of the Armenian

Church and Catholicate, the Holy See. In this order of special prayer, the clergyman entreats the Lord to make this Church "parent, teacher and overseer of all Armenian churches" and keep this important sacred institution "untarnished, unshakable, and bright."

On this auspicious occasion a special prayer is offered for the Catholicos, the successor of St. Gregory the Illuminator. Particularly on this day, the flock prays for the welfare of its chief pastor, the patriarch of the Armenian nation and leader of the Armenian Church. The Church prays for this chosen servant to be able to lead wisely with patience, righteousness, virtue, humility, and true faith.

The service ends with the Blessing of the Four Corners of the World during which the Patriarchal See of Armenia is blessed in the name of the Holy Trinity "by the sign of the Holy Cross, the Gospel and the grace of this day."

THANKSGIVING PRAYER

On the feast of Holy Etchmiadzin

Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who by the prayers and intercession of your greatly tortured witness and our father, Saint Gregory the Illuminator, descended from heaven onto the plain of Ararat with great glory and with the multitude of your luminous armies. You came to visit Your small flock, the Armenian nation, in order to show your special love and great mercy. With a golden hammer you struck the abysmal depths and put to flight the bands of demons. There You miraculously designed in luminous form Holy Etchmiadzin, our Holy See. You made it a storehouse of your unfading divine grace so that it may be the parent, teacher and overseer of all the Armenian churches. Keep her without blemish, firm and bright for the glory of our churches and children until the end of the world, so that they may always glorify Your holy Name for ever and ever. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

JOHN 10:22-30

22 It was the feast of the Dedication at Jerusalem; 23 it was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon. 24 So the Jews gathered round him and said to him, "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly." 25 Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness to me; 26 but you do not believe, because you do not belong to my sheep. 27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me; 28 and I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of my hand. 29 My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. 30 I and the Father are one."
